Professional Wedding Photographer Service

Terms and conditions of the contract

This contract is between John McDermott Photography (hereinafter known as the Photographer) and the Clients (hereinafter known as the Couple).

It is mutually agreed that the following terms of agreement form an integral part of this contract and that no variation or modification of this contract shall be effective unless agreed by both parties in writing.

This contract for wedding photography services is effective from the date it is signed by the Photographer and the Couple.

The Photographer agrees to be in attendance on the date shown and to provide the Couple with the photographic package as indicated below:

Date of wedding:

Wedding Location:

Wedding Reception:

Package booked and price:

Package Price and Payment Schedule (can be negotiated):

£150	to be paid on date when the package is booked and contract is signed (non-refundable)
50% of balance £	to be paid one month prior to the wedding
50% of balance £	to be paid one week prior to the wedding (final payment)

The Photographer confirms that the agreed price and package at the time of booking will not be subject to any subsequent price changes within the John McDermott Photography pricing structure.

The couple agree to pay the full balance of the photography package no later than 1 week prior to the wedding date shown above.

The Photographer agrees that every effort will be made to provide the highest quality photographic service in the prevailing conditions.

In the unlikely event of total or part photographic failure, death, injury or illness, accident or other unforeseen event beyond the Photographer's control, the Photographer's liability shall be limited to a full refund of all monies paid, minus the £150 deposit, and the Photographer shall not be responsible for other consequential damages, emotional or otherwise.

The Product

The Photographer will provide the Couple with

- The photographic package and service agreed
- Every High resolution JPEG supplied on the flash drive with full reproduction rights.

Licence to reprint and redistribute

The Photographer will give the couple complete licence and rights to reprint images for personal use. However, they may not sell or be used in any commercial publication or website without the photographer's consent.

Copyright

The Photographer retains the copyright of all images taken and may use images for advertising or promotional purposes at their discretion unless specifically requested not to do so by the clients. This includes posting images on Facebook and in magazines.

Artistic Licence

The Photographer shall be granted artistic licence on the wedding day in relation to the agreed poses photographed, the location used and the group shots taken. At least an hour should be put aside for wedding photographs on the day.

Other Photographs being taken

It must also be understood and agreed that no other photographs can be taken while the official photographer is working.

Collection of Wedding Photographs

The wedding photographs on flash drive will be ready within three weeks and can be collected from the Photographer's premises, or can be posted directly to the couple.
